

HEYJACK

Feel-Good Rock From Calgary, AB

HEYJACK is the feel-good rock band led by Adam Milliken, drawing inspiration from artists like Jack Johnson, John Mayer, The Bahamas, and Mt. Joy. Known for blending heartfelt storytelling with melodies that make you move.

Highlights

We are starting out 2025 participating in Canmore Folk Festival's "Warm Up" event! 2024 was an incredible year for HEYJACK, marked by standout performances, new connections, and exciting opportunities to share our music with fans across Western Canada. Highlighted by Westerner Days (Red Deer, Ab), Lethbridge Block Party, and a fundraiser for Jasper featuring local Calgary musicians. In 2024 we shared the stage with notable acts like Kim Mitchell, The Sheepdogs, Nice Horse, Mariel Buckley, Captain Tractor, and many more. HEYJACK is currently in the studio working on a full length album to follow up HEYJACK's debut EP "Aquarium" which has received radio play in Calgary on X92.9 and CJSW, as well as KGRG in Seattle. Songs from this new album start releasing January 31, 2025

More than just a name, HEYJACK is a phonetic acronym that represents family and the unwavering support that fuels the band's journey. Through themes of kindness, adventure, and gratitude, their songs explore life's joys and challenges, showcasing music's power to heal and inspire.

With a passion for celebrating love, family, nature, and life's beauty, HEYJACK invites listeners to embrace the highs and lows and share in the adventure.

TESTIMONIALS

We had HEYJACK on our District Stage for Westerner Days 2024, not only did they put on a great show. They were easy to work with and accommodating on and off the stage. We will see you again!" - Jason Dalstra, Event Venue Manager, Westerner Days

"HEYJACK joined us for our 2nd Block Party and no amount of bad weather could down their good vibes. They showed up on time for sound check, they were kind and involved. They are a fantastic upbeat band, and we enjoyed having them on our stage! A perfect addition to our party lineup." - Hannah, Lethbridge Block Party

"Big Beaver Brewing is always thrilled to host Heyjack in our taproom! Their performance has never been anything short of spectacular, they bring a vibrant energy that perfectly complements our atmosphere. The band balances sing-along covers & originals perfectly to keep the audience engaged and dancing around. Our patrons still rave about seeing them perform. If you're looking for a band that delivers an unforgettable experience, Heyjack is the way to go!" - Raygan, Big Beaver Brewing

HEYJACK Acoustic

Not every event calls for the whole band. Adam also performs a stripped down HEYJACK set. Bringing the audience back to how each song was originally crafted and taking the time to tell some of the stories behind the songs.
